Ginoong Maria

Premiere screening at UPFI

Cine Adarna, UP Film Institute (UPFI)
7 p.m.

“Ginoong Maria,” directed by Jon Red, is a black comedy inspired by true events. It is a fictional gangster tale and a parody of key figures in the current political arena.

Dindo, now a family man, is being recruited back to a syndicate involved in the lucrative business of killing. He is torn between a personal ambition and his loved ones—wife and daughter. These imagined characters are set against the background of a more surreal scenario: a world of extrajudicial killings, fake news, misogynistic and corrupt leaders and fanatic followers.

A curse that is yet to be broken. A nightmare that never sleeps.

Everything is political. And everything is personal.

Admission fee is P150. Tickets are available at the cinema entrance one hour before the screening.

For more information, call Sinag or Jack at 981-8500 loc. 4286; 926-3640; 926-2722; or visit <https://www.facebook.com/upfilmcenter/>.

HIV 101 and Screening

An introductory talk about HIV and free screening for UPD community

UP University Health Service Public Health Unit
8 a.m.—4 p.m.

Behind Closed Doors: an uncensored talk about HIV

A public lecture by Dr. Kate Leyritana

UP University Health Service Conference Room
2-4 p.m.

The talk and screening will be held as public service of the UP University Health Service, as part of their month-long anniversary celebrations. It is in cooperation with LoveYourself Inc.

From one per day, the current rate of new HIV cases daily has risen to 38, with increasing incidence in the younger age group. The activity will address the clamor of students, staff and faculty to obtain more information about HIV/AIDS, as a significant health concern.

For inquiries, please call Grace Santos at 981-8500 loc. 2709.

The Speaker:

Katerina 'Doc Kate' Leyritana is an Infectious Diseases Specialist. She is one of the founding Board Directors and the Medical Director of Sustained Health Initiatives of the Philippines, Inc., a one-stop shop alternative treatment option for people living with HIV, and other sexual health diseases. Apart from being an HIV physician, she is also an HIV researcher, program developer and policy development advocate. She is one of the awardees of the first RIPPLE Awards for HIV/AIDS advocacy, held during the World Aids Celebration in 2017.
