SUBJECT : GEC Lecture for UPD Faculty: The ABCs of GEn XYZ: Understanding Our Learners

DATE : 9 November 2020

Warm greetings!

Due to the success of the GEC Lecture for UPD GE Faculty entitled “The ABCs of GEn XYZ: Understanding Our Learners” conducted for the CAL and CSSP faculty during the first quarter of 2020, the General Education Center (GEC), will once again hold the Lecture as a webinar scheduled on Monday, 23 November 2020 at 9:00 AM – 11:30 AM. As agreed upon during the System GE Council Meeting on 23 October 2020, this webinar will now open to all colleges/units in UPD and other CUs, even for non-GE faculty members.

Professor Grace S. Koo of the College of Education has been invited again as resource speaker to deliver a one and a half hour lecture with a 30-minute open forum/ Q and A afterwards. She will share her rich experience and informed knowledge on educational psychology (e.g. generational differences between Generations X, Y, Z, how to educate Generation Z or the iGEn students, identify their psychosocial needs, how the faculty can respond to these, etc.).

Kindly encourage your faculty to participate. All interested faculty may register in advance through this link: https://up-edu.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_I3OBq3yxSD2trXDBwt0UWA. After registering, the faculty will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar. The faculty may also access the webinar and engage through YouTube Livestream at <https://www.youtube.com/c/UniversityComputerCenterUPD/live>.

Certificate will be provided to each faculty who will attend the webinar and accomplish the webinar evaluation thereafter.

Please see attached poster, for wide dissemination please.

Thank you.
